PROGNOSTICATORS

Things were tighter than a wet knot as prophets prepared to make their last prediction of 1953. Any of the first four could win it.

Powell, Cosgrove Kasten, Farrar & Clifford Make It

In an unprecedented sweep, the Torrance Tartars placed five on the first string All-Bay League team and four on the second team to completely dominate the All-Bay selections for 1953.

Bob McCutchen, center; Carlos Skaggs, guard and linebacker; Joe Lafferty, right half; and Burt Smith, left half, made the second team. It was the first time in the history of Torrance High that the Tartars placed more than two men on the first team.

Torrance completely dominated the selections with nine men on the first two teams, a tribute to one of the finest football teams Tartarville has produced. Santa Monica was next with four men on the first team and three on the second. Inglewood landed two men on the first team and two on the second.

Torrance received no honorable mentions. Santa Monica's quarterback, Jackie Douglas, who contributed largely to his team's conquest of the Tartars, was a first team choice.

All-Bay League selections are made from all-opponent teams submitted by each squad in the league. Awesome respect for the Tartar line was shown by the selection of Powell, Cosgrove, Clifford and Farrar as first team, plus McCutchen and Skaggs, second team. Skaggs was the only junior selected from Torrance. He'll be back next year.

Rounding out the first team were Dave and Dan Peterson, guard and center for Santa Monica; Roy Benstead of Inglewood, who shared the center spot with Petersen; and Doug Dick, of Redondo; at right half, a repeat performance for the Seahawk rambler.

Selections were announced at the All-Bay League dance at El Camino College last night.

Tartars Rested And Ready for Pre-Turkey Tilt

Two teams that just missed the championships of their respective leagues will fight it out when Loyola comes to town to meet the Torrance Tartars Wednesday night at Tartar Field.

The question to be settled by the game is: Which league is stronger, the Catholic or the Bay?

By comparative scores, the Bay League is unquestionably the stronger, with Santa Monica, Inglewood and Torrance rating as three of the most potent high school teams in the county.

Torrance will be primed and ready for the game, after a week-and-a-half rest. Joe Lafferty's ailing leg is healed, and Joe is running with the power of a mule. The only Tartar on the questionable list, according to Coach Cliff Graybehl, is Chuck Codd, who has had the flu during the past week. Al Rainwater sustained a head injury Thursday in an intra-squad game, but should be ready by Wednesday.

The intra-squad game was a tilt between the graduating seniors and next year's team—the juniors. The seniors won the tussle 14-7, with Don Kasten scoring on a line plunge and Joe Lafferty traipsing 15 yards to the second score. A 30-yard pass from Sonny Steele to Bob Boss was the junior scorer.

After scouting Loyola in their game against Mt. Carmel Thursday, won by the Cubs, 28-14, Graybehl says that their attack reminds him a lot of Inglewood. But, where Inglewood lacked a

National Champion Volleyball Teams to Give Exhibition Here

Two nationally-famous teams will give an exhibition of the game of volleyball at its best when the Long Beach YMCA veterans team meets the Long Beach YMCA open squad Tuesday night at 7:30 in the boys gym at Torrance High School.

Admission is free. The veterans, coached by Al Fish, finished as runner-up team in the National Championships in Omaha this year and the open team, coached by Fuzzy Frazier, also competed in the championships and took second place in both the National Open and the National YMCA open tournaments.

A team from Mexico will play an exhibition with the All-Stars, as an added attraction.

Two top girls' teams will also meet in an exhibition. The West-erners, a new Long Beach team led by Joan Neff, 1953 All-American and former member of the National Women's Championship team from Santa Monica, will meet an all-star group selected from top teams in the Southland area.

Members of the YMCA veterans team who are scheduled to appear here are: Benire Specht and Henri Collis, both of whom were chosen members of the 1953 All-American team; Fuzzy Frazier, who won a spot on the All-American second team; Bob McConnell; Glenn Wing, Walt Theobald and Russ Larson. Their opponents boast an equal array of top-flight players. Heading the list is Jim Montague, team captain, who won triple honors in the 1953 Championships. He won All-American honors and was named as the most outstanding player in National AAU Championships, and competing in the National Open Tourney, was selected for the first team in that division of play.

THS Wins Cross Country Title

Torrance High annexed the Bay League Cross Country title for the second year in a row Friday with a 15-47 perfect score win over Inglewood on the Sentinel course.

The win gave the Tartars a perfect season record with nine wins and no losses. Bob Guerra, home course record holder, won easily in 8:50 for the 1.8 mile course. Surprise of the meet was Tom Waller's second place time of 9:04.

Waller led Fred Albertson, Dave Ruffell and Jim Stanford to the finish line. Wednesday, the Tartars will attempt to bring home the trophy for the Bay League championship when they travel to Centinela Park in Inglewood for the League finals. The Tartar JVs also posted a perfect score, beating Inglewood 15-48.

Inglewood Lands 6 On Tartar All Opponent Squad

It's easy to see which Bay League football team gave the Torrance Tartars the most trouble this season. Inglewood landed over half of the positions on the Tartars' all-opponent team, from which All-Bay League selections were made.

Don Long, Beverly Hills' flashy quarterback, got the first team quarterback spot over such other league luminaries as Jackie Douglas of Santa Monica, and George Longdin of Inglewood.

Douglas got a measly "Honorable Mention" on the Tartars list, as did Lee Grosscup, whose last minute pass beat the Tartars at Santa Monica.
